CHARITABLE

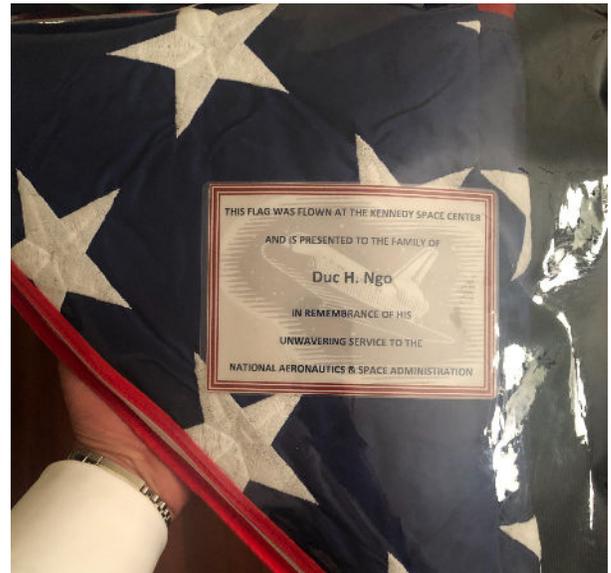

UPCOMING EVENT

On Sunday, November 6th, Team JDJ will be running the NYC Marathon!
Here's why:

Anthony Bridda

“I am running the NYC Marathon to push both my mind and body to achieve something great while simultaneously raising money for two great causes. I will be running to raise money towards brain cancer research and the power wheelchair community. Together with the JDJ foundation and the 10 other participating runners I have a chance to make a positive impact and raise meaningful dollars to help others. This opportunity to make a difference provides me with motivation each and every day I train.”

Bao Ngo

“The marathon will be exactly three years without my uncle. We spent his last days eating lunch all throughout NYC after his chemotherapy at MSK and doctor appointments at HSS. It's serendipitous that I'm also running for kids like Anh and Lucy who we donated wheelchairs to. I'm running for all the cancer patients and pediatric wheelchair recipients who can't.”

Ben Sobsey

“I’m running the New York City Marathon for my best friend Chris. 8 years ago his Mom passed away from cancer, which is why running with team JDJ and raising money for cancer research is very important to me.”

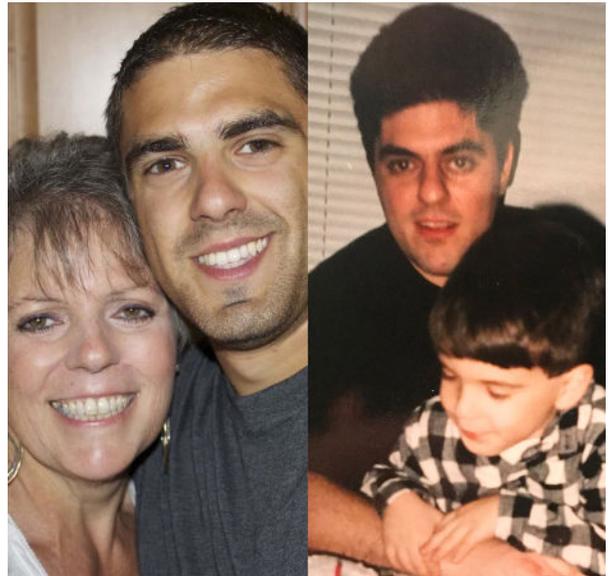

Bruno Mele

“I will be running this year’s NYC Marathon in honor of my beloved grandparents Antoina Mele and Thomas Zupicich. Their memories are motivating me for this journey to raise money, awareness and accomplish a huge goal for myself. I am excited to cross the finish line alongside the JDJ Foundation.”

Dan and Sara Sobsey

“We’re running to support the incredible charity efforts of the JDJ Foundation and for those who have been impacted by cancer.”

Dan Cava

“I am running the NYC Marathon with JDJ Foundation in memory of my mom, Gina and my Uncle Larry who both lost their battles with cancer. We are raising money that will go directly to cancer research and to families impacted by cancer so, hopefully, one day no other families will have to endure what mine went through. I am running because I can, and so many others cannot due to being sick or taking care of family members that are sick. Together, we can make a huge difference.”

Fitzzy Lynch

“I am running the NYC Marathon to raise money for brain cancer research and the power wheelchair community. Together with the JDJ foundation and my fellow runners, we have a chance to make a positive impact and raise meaningful money to help others. It is a privilege to be able to push my mind and body to run 26.2 miles while having the opportunity to make a difference in the lives of others.”

James Blauvelt

“I am running the marathon to show the world that cancer didn't beat my family and there is hope for those still fighting.”

James Bridda

“I am running the NYC Marathon in order to raise money for the JDJ Foundation to help the power wheelchair community. In addition, I am running the 26.2 miles for the reward of finishing the race after the continuous dedication over 4 months to train and prepare for race day.”

Joe Gucciardo

“I am running the 2022 NYC Marathon to challenge myself to accomplish something I never thought I could do. It is important to me to push my limits while supporting amazing causes through the JDJ Foundation. Having the opportunity to achieve this was something I could not pass up. See you all on November 6th.”

Please consider supporting our team's fundraising campaign to benefit our nonprofit, specifically cancer and wheelchair families.
